Kind Reader:

In penetrating the contents of this book, we believe that you will understand the serious purport of the authors. We have tried to give to you an almanac that will serve in later years as a cyclopedia of historic and statistic facts concerning Wesleyan for the year 1931. The whole is carefully calculated for the latitude and the meridian of Macon, Georgia and it will serve for all adjacent states.

Our performance for this year submits itself for your criticism but hopes for your kindness to forgive its faults. It devotes itself entirely to your service, and will serve you faithfully. If it has the good fortune to please this is gratification enough for our labor.

But we must not raise your expectations higher or delay longer your entertainment by a tedious preface. Our design, we think, deserves your grave attention in the perusal.

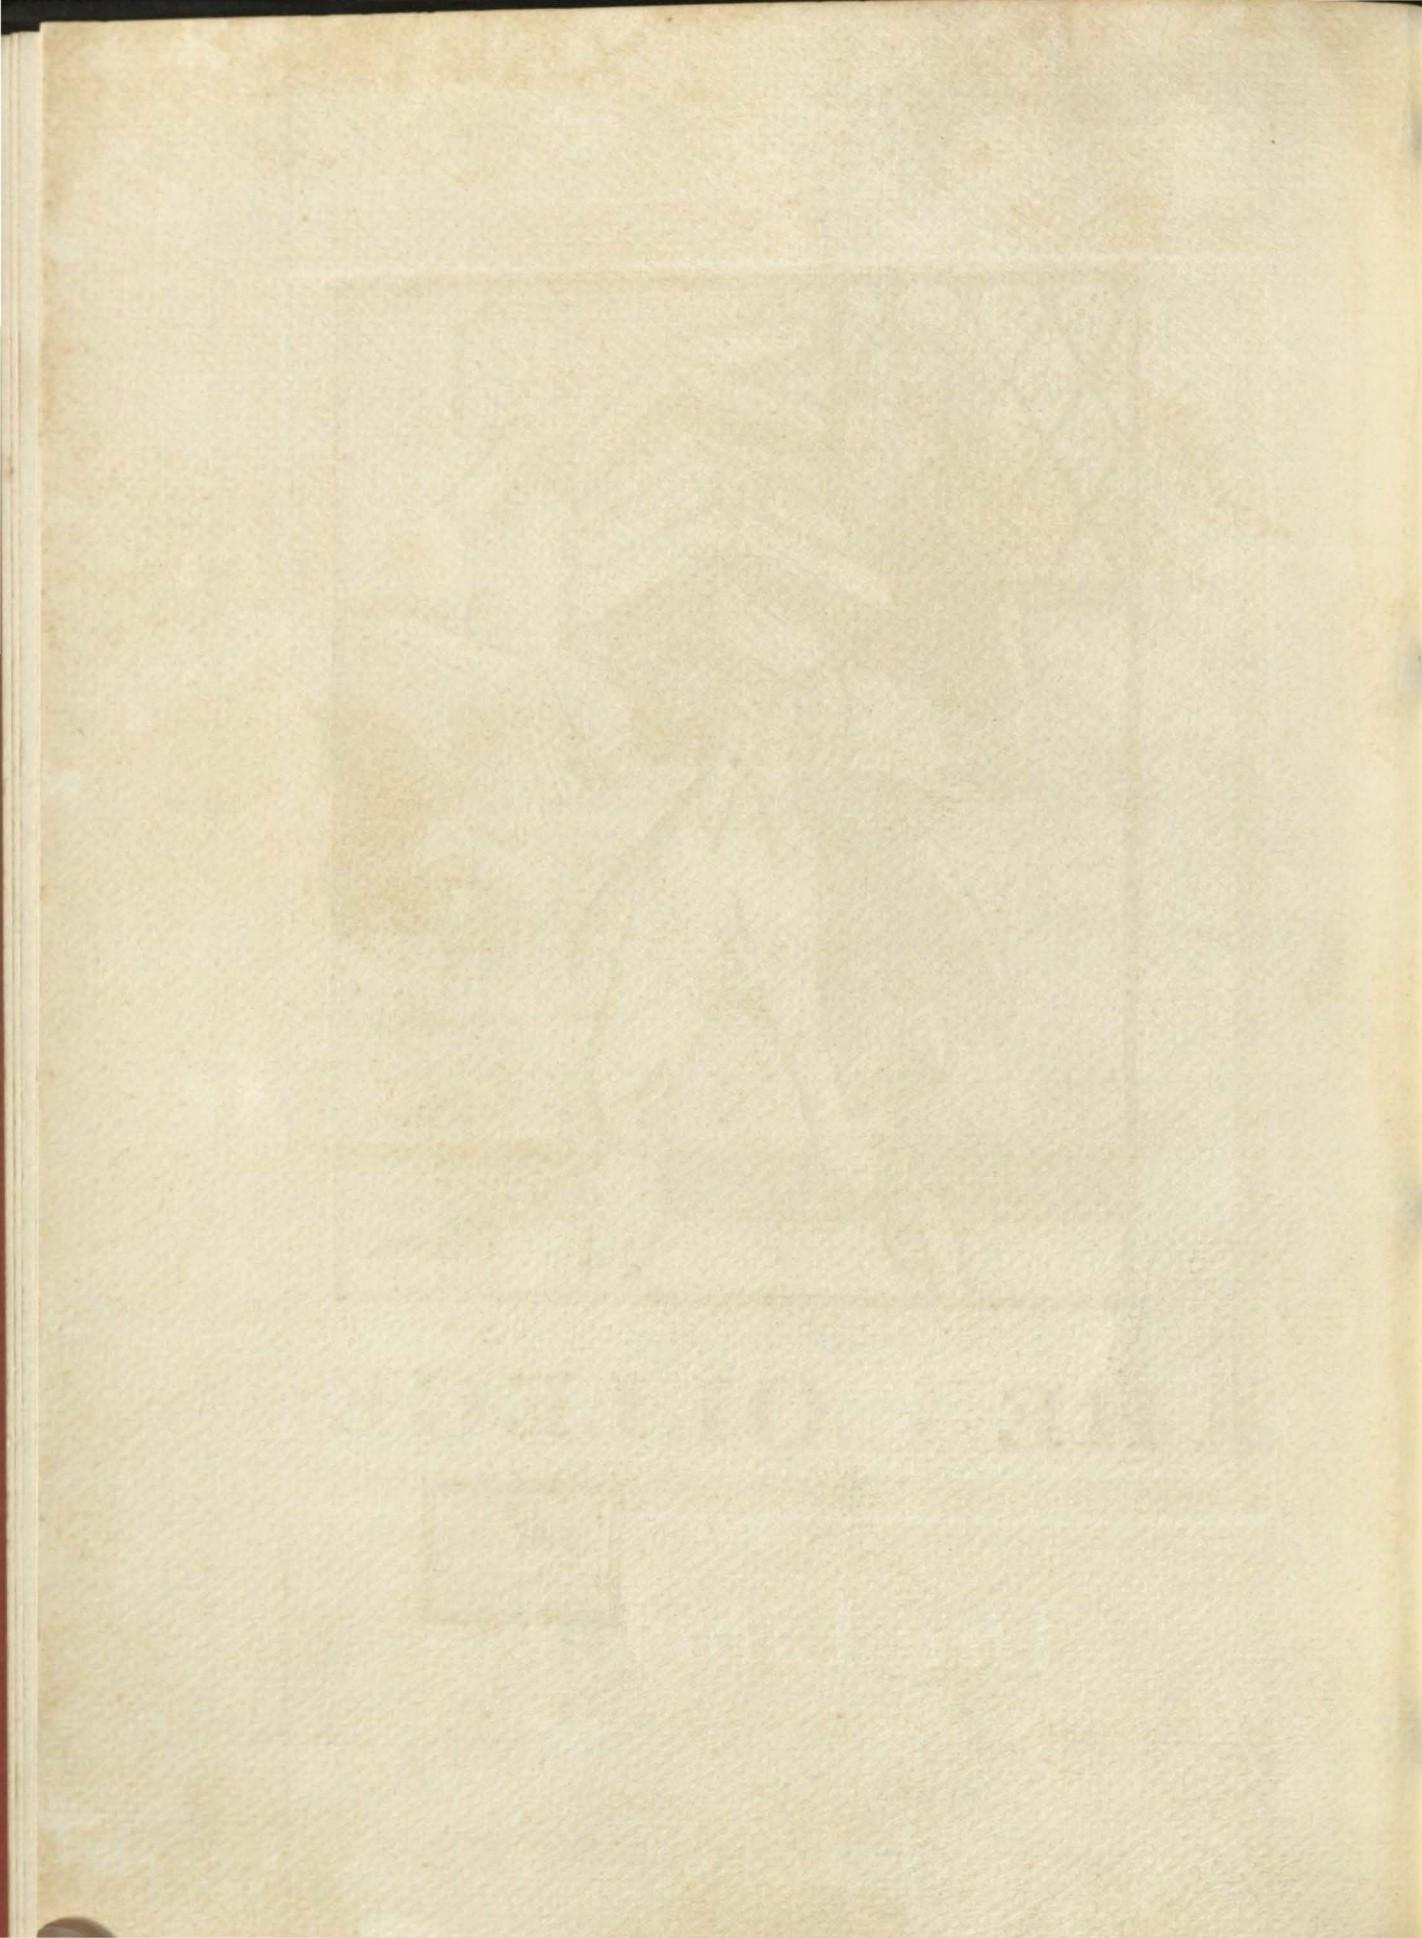

Farewell

February 24

Your birth placement is under the sign of Pisces. Inherently, you are particularly pure-minded, and have no place in your heart for anything that savors of the contrary. Being ethical in tastes and desires you insist upon unity, order, harmony, and artistic expression in everything. Considerable travel appears in your life-scale of vibratory influence. You could be successful in public speaking, writing, architecture, and designing. Avocationally, you are an organizer of cosmical and civic interests.

The Zodiacal sign under which you were born is Virgo. Characteristically, you are firm in your opinions, strong in your friendships, and square with people in your world of affairs. Your inherent ability gives credence to executive power. You are honest, just, and benevolent, and you require that others shall conform to your ideals of integrity. February and November are the best months for you to begin an enterprise in and Wednesday is your lucky day. You will be happily married to someone born in October or December.

Aries, with the moon in Scorpio, gives you a tendency to follow the regular rules and customs of society, and of the world in general, thereby inclining your mind more to conventionalities than to originality. You love order, elegance and beauty. Avocationally your knowledge and understanding would make you a teacher of parliamentary law. Caution and deliberation are the keys to your particular radiation. In vibratory influence, there is noted for you many strange occurrences, the power to achieve, and the determination to overcome obstacles.

Wesleyan College

ESLEYAN is the pioneer college for women. It has the distinction of being the first chartered college for women in the world to confer a degree upon a woman. This degree was conferred upon Miss Catherine E. Brewer on July 16, 1840.

The Wesleyan College was incorporated December 23, 1836, by an Act of the Legislature of the State of Georgia, under the name of "The Georgia Female College." Two years later the Trustees elected a president and faculty and on the seventh day of January, 1839, the doors of the College were opened to the public. The student-body consisted of 90 young ladies, which number was increased to 168 before the end of the first term. Many of these had taken work in the leading academies and seminaries of the South, and for this reason the first class was graduated in July, 1840.

Wesleyan was chartered as a higher institution of learning and authorized to "confer all such honors, degrees, and licenses as are usually conferred in colleges and universities." "The Testimonial of the Georgia Female College" was in English and recited that "after having passed through a regular Course of Study—embracing all of the Sciences which are usually taught in the Colleges of the United States, with such as appropriately belong to Female Education in its most ample range."

By an Act of the Legislature approved December 19, 1843, the Georgia Conference of the Methodist Church accepted the College and changed the name to the Wesleyan Female College. In the year 1919, the charter was still further amended by striking from the corporate name the word Female so that the institution from that date has been known as Wesleyan College. Today Wesleyan is conducted in harmony with the principles of this denomination, but is non-sectarian.

By reason of its ideals, its history, and traditions, Wesleyan College is distinctly a Christian institution. The motto upon its seal, "Scientia et Pietas", sets forth the objective of the College and emphasizes the combination of high scholarship and solid piety.

Wesleyan is recognized by the leading standardizing Associations of America. The College is on the full accredited list of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, the American Council on Education, the American Association of University Women, the Association of American Colleges, and the Association of American Universities.

The college is located on a magnificent campus of 170 acres, in the immediate suburbs of the city of Macon. The new campus, dotted with lakes and lawns, with a background of rolling woodland, presents a natural setting for this historic institution.

The judicial power of the students lies with a council elected to represent the student body. They help to promote high ideals of personal honor and responsibility for which the college stands. In case of any breach of the honor system, it is the power of the Student Council to investigate and pass judgment upon it with the help of the Faculty Advisory Board.

The Veterropt

In 1899 appeared the first annual of Wesleyan College, called the Adelphean. This was a small book published by the Adelphian Society, which later became the Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Pictures were occasional in this little cloth-bound volume, but it gave a record of the college days of '99. Also it contained a description of Yellowstone National Park, where one of the sorority members had spent her vacation the summer before.

Six years later the Senior Class published a year book known as the "Zig Zag" in the family history of the VETERROPT. In this book there are many drawings and the pictures are placed between these on half pages. The year following the "Zig Zag" appeared in much the present form and shape of annuals and was beautifully bound in purple suede.

The Class of 1913 gave their book the mysterious title "Ku Klux." A few years later the annual staff with the help of Professor Charles Foster, Latin instructor, decided on the name "Veterropt." The word was coined from the Latin words veterimus and optimus, meaning oldest and best (referring to Wesleyan as the oldest college for women).

The VETERROPT of 1931 is a far cry from the "Adelphean" of 1899, but all through the years the purpose of the publication has been to present a true story of the life of the college year, giving attention to the informal as well as the formal activities on the campus.

The Wesleyan

AD ASTRA PER ASPERA

Thirty years ago the girls at Wesleyan College decided that they had to have some means of expression for their literary talents, and as a result the Wesleyan came into existence. This was during the year 1902-03, and since that time this publication has enjoyed a steady progress.

The Wesleyan is a magazine published six times a year, and in it are found short stories, feature articles, poetry, editorials, and any other type of creative writing. All the material is original and prepared by the students, with the exception of one edition a year, and the articles for this edition are prepared by the alumnae.

DEDICATION

To

Mrs. Lula F. Comer

Do we, the members of the Conservatory staff, with love and appreciation dedicate the Conservatory section of the Veterropt.

Wesleyan

1

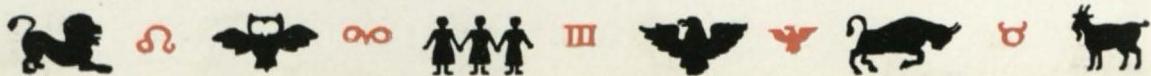

*World wide, world reaching,
Sky touching, sea deep,
Her daughter's hearts hold mysteries
Too wondrousome to keep.*

*Dear mysteries, queer mysteries,
Of love for many things,
For music, people, flowers,
Every heart sings.*

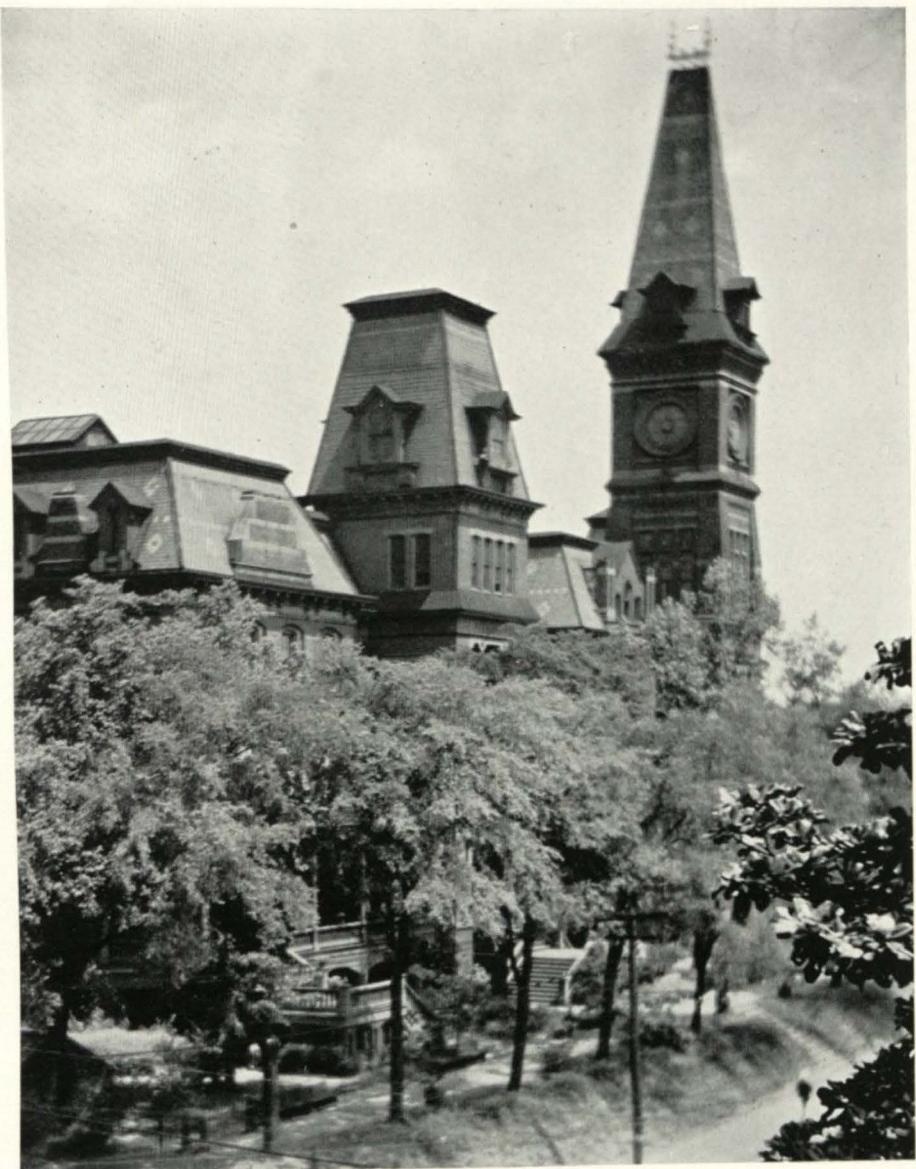

*But nearest love, dearest love,
Closest their hearts,
To love for towers standing
Dim, aloof, apart.*

*New visions, true visions
Of future come fast,
But futures are distant
And memories last.*

SPRIGHT DOWELL, President

An Institution Rich in Tradition, Christian in Atmosphere, Liberal in Tone, Modern in Viewpoint

MERCER offers, in the College of Liberal Arts, four-year courses leading to various professions—qualifies men for the business world in the School of Commerce—trains future teachers in the School of Education—equips students, in a CLASS A School of Law, for the practice of law and for public life—provides theoretical and practical journalistic training in the Department of Journalism—prepares for medicine through pre-medical courses—prepares for the ministry and allied fields through the School of Christianity.

The Summer School, with attendance increasing each year, offers unusual advantages to teachers. In addition, the curriculum is made available to non-resident and other students through certain Home Study courses.

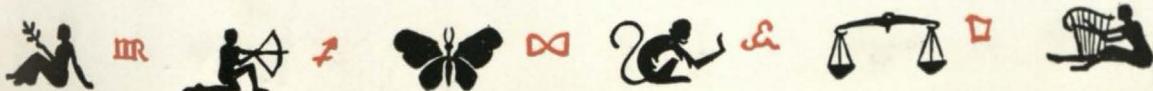

By the use of the Cafeteria and the various dormitories, all under careful supervision, expenses of students may be kept within very reasonable bounds. College life is made pleasant in an environment in which friendliness and the family spirit prevail.
